Keeping it Positive was developed with the hopes of helping people to be more positive, and successful in their lives.

Its Pleasant Dreamz product line contains 16oz. Ceramic Barrel mugs ($12.99) with positive affirmations such as hope, confidence, self-esteem, etc. Talk about throwing your “case of the Mondays” right out the door.

“By saying affirmations daily, this conditions your subconscious mind to think more positive, be more confident, focused, and can change your life by affecting your attitude, thinking, and your reactions... making you more successful,” said company rep. Debbie Oser.

Changing your thinking patterns to be more POSITIVE starts with saying Affirmations every day,... and our products provide that, having the Affirmations right there to read!

They started Keeping it Positive after seeing how positive affirmations changed their sons’ attitude and behavior to be more self-assured, and Confident.
