Keeping It Positive + 15% Off

January 19, 2010

By Rose ~ RedneckWitch

Something I have done since both of my kids were very small is each night when tucking them into bed to tell them how beautiful/handsome, special, and loved they are. I know if my now teen son see's this he's going to have a cow. But it's all true. No matter how the day went, or where we were we knew I would follow that nightly routine. When Debbie from Keeping It Positive contacted me in regards to review and I took a peek at her products it brought back many memories. I still do this, every night. Sure to be a wonderful and encouraging gift for ... anyone!
